The 2022 Historical Society of New Mexico Awards

Lansing R. Bloom Award – for an outstanding publication in New Mexico or Southwest borderlands history by an institution affiliated with the Historical Society of New Mexico

East Mountain Historical Society, for its quarterly newsletter

Pablita Velarde Award – for an outstanding children’s publication related to New Mexico or Southwest borderlands history

Ralph Emerson Twitchell Award – for an outstanding publication or significant contribution by an individual or organization to the creative arts as related to New Mexico history

*John Trever, author, The Art and Humor of John Trever: Fifty Years of Political Cartooning (University of New Mexico Press)*

Fray Francisco Atanasio Domínguez Award – for an outstanding publication or significant contribution to historic survey and research in New Mexico or Southwest borderlands history

*William R. Carleton, author, Fruit, Fiber, and Fire: A History of Modern Agriculture in New Mexico (University of Nebraska Press)*

Gaspar Pérez de Villagrá Award – for an outstanding publication by an individual or individuals in New Mexico on Southwest borderlands history

L. Bradford Price Award – for significant work in the field of historic preservation in New Mexico

Nancy Tucker, for her dedication over 20 years in seeking out and collecting historic photographs, postcards, ephemera, and other papers for contribution to New Mexico archives, libraries, and museums

Menaul Historical Library, for a half-century of collecting, preserving, and providing access to archival materials documenting 175 years of Presbyterian presence in the Southwest

Dorothy Woodward Award – for advancement of education in New Mexico history

Dance Arts Los Alamos, for its original production of Nutcracker on the Hill, a deeply researched and highly innovative presentation of the classic ballet set in Los Alamos during the Manhattan Project

Edgar Lee Hewett Award – for outstanding service to the people of New Mexico, as related to history

Leba Freed Pierce, for her dedication and long-term efforts to ensure that the historic architecture of the Albuquerque Railyards would be preserved and incorporated into a world-class transportation museum

Paul A. F. Walter Award – for outstanding service to the Historical Society of New Mexico
Henrietta Martinez Christmas, for her leadership in moving HSNM publications, presentations, and meetings into the virtual arena during a time of transition, and recognizing her long-term service to the Society

New Mexico Historical Review Awards

Lansing B. Bloom Family Award—Best Dissertation on New Mexico and Southwestern History

Gilberto Espinosa Award – Best Article Published by the New Mexico Historical Review

Valerie Sherer Mathes, "The Ring Master: Roberts Walker Organizes against the Bursum Bill," New Mexico Historical Review Vol. 96, no. 3 (Summer 2021): 281-330